GOVERNMENT OF MAHARASHTRA

GENERAL ADMINISTRATION DEPARTMENT

Circular No. CDR-1081/164/XI, dated the 15th February 1982

CIRCULAR OF GOVERNMENT

Attention is invited to rule 5 of the Maharashtra Civil Services (Conduct) Rules, 1979, which prohibits a Government servant from taking part in or associating with or subscribing in aid of, or assisting in any other manner any political movement or activity and which also makes it incumbent on the Government servant to endeavour to prevent any member of his family from taking part in, subscribing in aid of, or assisting in any other manner any movement or activity which tends directly or indirectly to be subversive of any Government in India. Attention is also invited to the Government Circular, General Administration Department, No. CDR-1067-D-I, dated the 27th June 1967 (copy enclosed). The rules quoted in the margin of the first para of this Circular have been repealed by rule 33 of the Maharashtra Civil Services (Conduct) Rules, 1979 but instructions contained in para 2 of the Circular are still in force. The effect of these instructions and the provisions of rule 5 of the Maharashtra Civil Services (Conduct) Rules, 1979, will be that Government servants are banned from participating directly or indirectly in the activities of Rashtriya Swayam Sewak Sangh and Jammat-e-Islami and they will be held responsible in respect of their children and dependent members of their families as well. In case Government servants are unable to exercise control on their children or other members of their families, they will have to bring their inability to control them to the notice of Government as provided under rule 5(2) of the Maharashtra Civil Services (Conduct) Rules, 1979.

2. All Heads of Departments are requested to bring these instructions to the notice of Government servants under their control.

By order and in the name of the Governor of Maharashtra,

GOVERNMENT OF MAHARASHTRA

GENERAL ADMINISTRATION DEPARTMENT

Circular No. CDR-1067-D-I

Sachivalaya, Bombay-32(BR), dated the 27th June 1967

CIRCULAR OF GOVERNMENT

- According to the Conduct Rules applicable to Government servants in this State which are mentioned in the margin, Government servants are prohibited from taking part in, subscribing in aid of, or assisting in any way any political movement or activity.
- | |
|---|
| (1) Rule 30 of the Bombay Civil Services, Conduct, Discipline and Appeal Rules. |
| (2) Rule 20 of the Madhya Pradesh Government Servants' Conduct Rules. |
| (3) Rule 23 of the (Hyderabad) Government Servants' Conduct Rules. |

2. Since doubts are being raised whether participation in the activities of the Rashtriya Swayam Sewak Sangh and Jammāt-e-Islami can be deemed to attract the provisions of these rules, Government wishes to clarify that it has always held the activities of the Rashtriya Swayam Sewak Sangh and the Jammāt-e-Islami to be of such a nature that participation in them by Government servants would attract the provisions of these rules and will render them liable for disciplinary action. This position should be specifically brought to the notice of all Government servants.

By order and in the name of the Governor of Maharashtra,

K. P. NADKARNI,
Deputy Secretary to Government.
